MAIL: The letter about Brannan moving for a person who is not playing in his game last issue was from Monte Zelazny.

7 December 1967 "Agree completely about Brannan!"-Charles Turner

Everyone considers John Smythe the top player in Postal Diplomacy so what does he think of the Boardman Fraud? Since so many have asked where he stands we quote from Lonely Mountain #39, page #8: John Smythe said; "So Diplomacy is only a game, but there are rules, or codes, of play. If (John) Boardman wanted to play a hoax he could have done so without twice entering Broddingnag's '640. If Diplomacydom wishes to white wash the whole affair a better excuse will have to be found, eh?"

Big Brother is happy to add Mr. Smythe to those like Chas.
Turner, James Dygert, Brian Bailey, Rodney Walker & so many of us that will never "Whitewash" the Boardman-Eric Blake affair!

EDITORIAL: It is bad enough that certain players use the lowly postcard to send important Postal Diplomacy moves. I guess you don't realize that most postcards are not even postmarked or are not even canceled anymore. Wonder more of them are not lost?

However the subject of this Editorial is those cheap "fools" that mail out Postal Diplomacy zines without an envelope. I know I'm stepping on some friends' toes but it can't be helped. Two terrible examples are Xenogogic by Larry Peery and Erehwon by Rod Walker. They always look like a silly mess of printed pages and they are sent as printed matter. Larry does not even bother to mark his rambling pages first class. On Dec. 4th. Rod Walker sent Vol. 2#5 of his rag dated Dec. 1st. and he even marked it, "First class mail" in small print. From Clear out in Illinois to Penna. it took EIGHT full days to arrive here. (Dec. 12th.) In it was a deadline for some at noon on the 11th. (Yesterday & a receipt deadline at that?) So all diplomacy editors please note this crazy situation and stop this stupid practice of sending postal diplomacy zines thru the mail without an envelope so it will not only look like first class but it will be handled by the post-office as said first class material. OK?-Big Brother.
